Aurora Fox Arts Center: Company

Musical

Donating Partner: Aurora Fox Arts Center

Aurora Fox Arts Center

9900 East Colfax Avenue, Aurora

Ticket Procedure: Letter to the Box Office

On the night of his 35th birthday, perpetual bachelor Robert contemplates his unmarried state. Through a series of comical dinners, spirited cocktails and an especially anxious wedding, his friends explain the pros and cons of marriage (and divorce). Robert is forced to examine his adamant retention of bachelorhood during these hilarious arrays of social interactions.

Winner of seven Tony Awards, including Best Musical, Best Score, Best Lyrics and Best Book, "Company" features a brilliantly brisk and energetic score containing many of Stephen Sondheim's best-known songs: "You Could Drive a Person Crazy", "Ladies Who Lunch", "Side by Side by Side", "Not Getting Married Today" and "Being Alive".

Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

Book by George Furth

Ballet Ariel presents Rikki-Tikki-Tavi and Aurora's Wedding from Sleeping Beauty

Ballet

Donating Partner: Ballet Ariel

Lone Tree Arts Center's Main Stage

10075 Commons Street, Lone Tree

Ticket Procedure: Letter to the Box Office

Rikki-Tikki-Tavi is a new and original ballet based on the short story in Rudyard Kipling's beloved classic Jungle Book. In a tropical, jungle setting and full of animals, this child-friendly ballet is a story of great courage and loyalty as the little mongoose Rikki stands in the face of danger from two slithering cobras Nag and Nagaina to protect his adopted family.

Director Ilena Norton, in collaboration with contemporary choreographer, Gregory Gonzales, created this spellbinding ballet to the melodic and rhythmic music of Alberto Ginastera, a leading Argentinian composer of the 20th century. Norton's fluid and elegant style combined with Gonzales' slightly edgy approach, results in an innovative and novel ballet the whole family will enjoy.

Ballet Ariel will also be performing the classical ballet Aurora's Wedding from Sleeping Beauty. In Aurora's Wedding, the delightful fairy tale characters Little Red Riding Hood and Puss In Boots attend the royal wedding, staged by Oleg Dedogryuk and Patricia Renzetti.

Boulder Philharmonic presents Music of Resistance

Classical Music

Donating Partner: Boulder Philharmonic Orchestra

Performing Arts Complex at Pinnacle Charter School

1001 W. 84th Ave., Federal Heights

Ticket Procedure: Letter to the Box Office

The Boulder Phil explores the intersection of art and politics in a program of three works by composers with definite points of view. Shostakovich's thrilling 5th Symphony was a bold (if somewhat veiled) rejection of Stalin's totalitarianism. Britten's Ballad of Heroes suggests that failing to take a stand is equivalent to acquiescence. And Beethoven praises music as the tonic to tame our propensity for aggression in a work that foreshadows his famous Symphony No. 9. Metropolitan Opera tenor Matthew Plenk is joined by Boulder pianist David Korevaar along with the combined choral forces of CU and Western Illinois University.

Colorado Symphony presents Mozart's Requiem

Classical Music

Donating Partner: Colorado Symphony

Boettcher Concert Hall

1000 14th St., Denver

Ticket Procedure: Ticket Pick-up

After leading a lauded performance of the CSO's 2014 All-Beethoven program, Jun Märkl returns to Boettcher Concert Hall to conduct the internationally praised Colorado Symphony Chorus in Mozart's immortal Requiem. Ironically, Mozart died before finishing his Requiem, and supposedly wrote instructions for completion on since-lost "little scraps of paper". However mythical the conclusion of this masterpiece may be, its dramatic and captivating spirit endures. Strauss' Death and Transfiguration - a tone poem depicting the death of an artist - complements the immortal Requiem in a program that proves the longevity of brilliance.

Germinal Stage presents Absurduo

Non-musical play

Donating Partner: Germinal Stage, Inc.

Westminster High School

6933 Raleigh St., Westminster

Ticket Procedure: Letter to the Box Office

Germinal Stage presents Absurduo, two mid-20th century existential classics consisting of:
THE CHAIRS by Eugene Ionesco and KRAPP'S LAST TAPE by Samuel Beckett.

Originally written in 1952 and subtitled by the author as "a tragic farce", The Chairs was acclaimed when produced on Broadway during the 1998 season in the Theatre de Complicite/Royal Court production. An absurdist play of the first order by a master innovator of the genre. The premise: an elderly couple spend their time collecting and inventorying chairs only to be overcome by the very objects that give their lives meaning.

Krapp's Last Tape, is Samuel Beckett's moving meditation on time, memory and aging. An old man sits alone at a table, preparing for his annual ritual: to archive the last year of his weary life on tape as he's done on his birthday ever since he was a young man. Listening in on an earlier recording, he's drawn into a chilling dialogue with his younger, brashly confident self - but are the memories he evokes better left unheard?

Beckett's haunting one-man play is a brief but highly intense experience, giving voice to the conversations we have with ourselves across time - an essay in loneliness, but shot through with grim humor.

Starring Ed Baierlein (as Krapp), Leroy Leonard and Katie Mangett; directed by Steve Kramer.

JAAMM Festival: Heather Booth: Changing the World

Film

Matinee

Donating Partner: Mizel Arts and Culture Center

The Elaine Wolf Theatre, Mizel Center for Arts and Culture

350 S. Dahlia St., Denver

Ticket Procedure: Letter to the Box Office

Chronicling the life of Heather Booth, a lifelong progressive organizer, the film follows her journey from civil rights activist in the 60s to her founding of the Midwest Academy, a training institute for progressive community organizers.

From a politically conscious college student who began her career in 1964 registering voters in Mississippi at the height of the Civil Rights movement, Heather became the go-to strategist for causes ranging from child care to women's rights to immigration reform and advisor to leaders including Julian Bond and Senator Elizabeth Warren.

The film blends archival and contemporary footage with interviews with close friends, clients, political colleagues, students and others to understand this one person's legacy in progressive politics. This is a timely film that arms viewers with methods they can employ to preserve our democratic principles.

The goal is for Heather Booth: Changing the World to serve as a tool for community organizing, through education and awareness, and as a guide for mobilizing that inspires activism and ignites change.

Director Lilly Rivlin is an award winning American-Israeli journalist, writer, and independent filmmaker based in New York. She has produced and directed many documentaries about women who are political activists. She has been an activist for peace between Israelis and Palestinians for many decades and is a former president of Meretz USA, now Partners for a Progressive Israel. Mainstream Music

The Elaine Wolf Theatre, Mizel Center for Arts and Culture
350 S. Dahlia St., Denver

Ticket Procedure: Letter to the Box Office

Metropolitan Klezmer, established in 1994, brings eclectic exuberance to Yiddish musical genres from all over the map. This collaborative adventure of seven exceptional New York musicians combines the best of downtown, classical and World Music scenes to create inspired neo-traditional interpretations and compositions around a panoply of eclectic Yiddish repertoire: ethereal trance, rollicking dance, imaginatively-arranged Yiddish swing and tango, plus genre-expanding originals such as klezmer cumbia. The ensemble also explores such lesser-known gems as Soviet Yiddish theater melodies and drinking songs, gorgeous overlooked soundtrack tunes from vintage films set in Eastern Europe and the Lower East Side, and unexpected musical angles which transform familiar favorites from the inside out. They reinvent tradition with both irreverence and respect...an exhilarating journey!

Film

Donating Partner: Mizel Arts and Culture Center

The Elaine Wolf Theatre, Mizel Center for Arts and Culture
350 S. Dahlia St., Denver

Ticket Procedure: Letter to the Box Office

Steal a Pencil For Me is a compelling documentary feature film by Academy Award nominee Michèle Ohayon about the power of love and the ability of humankind to rise above unimaginable suffering.

1943: Holland is under Nazi occupation. In Amsterdam, Jack, an unassuming accountant, first meets Ina at a birthday party – a 20-year-old beauty from a wealthy family who instantly steals his heart. But Jack's pursuit of love will be complicated; he is poor and married to Manja, a flirtatious and mercurial spouse. When the Jews are being deported, the husband, the wife and the lover find themselves at the same concentration camp, living in the same barracks. When Jack's wife objects to the "girlfriend" in spite of their unhappy marriage, Jack and Ina resort to writing secret love letters, which sustain them throughout the horrible circumstances of the war.

Jefferson Symphony Orchestra Season Opening Concert

Classical Music

Matinee

Donating Partner: Jefferson Symphony Orchestra

Green Center

924 16th St, Colorado School of Mines, Golden

Ticket Procedure: Ticket Pick-up

The Jefferson Symphony Orchestra will kick off its 65th anniversary concert season with a powerhouse program featuring Beethoven's Symphony No. 5, Brahms' Tragic Overture and Elgar's Enigma Variations.

Even those who are not classical music aficionados recognize Beethoven's Fifth Symphony's four note opening motif of short, short, short, long. The Fifth Symphony offers something for everyone from the drama of the first movement to the uplifting final movement.

Johannes Brahms titled Tragic Overture accordingly to emphasize the tormented character of the piece. It offers a dark contrast to his more lighthearted Academic Festival Overture which was composed the same year in 1880.

Also on the program is Edward Elgar's well-known Enigma Variations. As Elgar explains it, "This work, commenced in a spirit of humor and continued in deep seriousness, contains sketches of the composer's friends. It may be understood that these personages comment or reflect on the original theme and each one attempts a solution of the Enigma, for so the theme is called. The sketches are not 'portraits' but each variation contains a distinct idea founded on some particular personality or perhaps on some incident known only to two people."

Tragic Overture by Johannes Brahms

Enigma Variations by Edward Elgar

Symphony No. 5 by Ludwig van Beethoven

Mitchell Green is a Hollywood star on his way to the A-list - if he can only keep that pesky "recurring case of homosexuality" under wraps. When Mitchell falls for a young call-boy while in New York for a premiere, his acerbic, fast-talking Hollywood agent, Diane, takes matters into her own hands. Meanwhile, the call-boy, Alex, is trying to figure out what he wants: Mitchell, or best friend/lover Ellen. He is torn between his desires for glitter and money and his longing for love, with all its requisite complications. Throughout all this, the tabloid-mad public keeps at everyone's heels, waiting anxiously for someone to fall. Douglas Carter Beane's The Little Dog Laughed is a biting, timely comedy, that takes aim at the entertainment industry, sex and sexuality, and the way happy endings "should" look.

Horsecapades is a professional performance of the largest precision drill riding group in the world. High-speed, precision horsemanship in a dazzling array of costumes. Bullwhips and rope tricks. Flaming batons. Historical battle reenactments. Astonishing trick riding. All performed by young people who have chosen the road less traveled. While others take up more common sports and activities, the youth of Westernaires work year-round at honing skills that represent the best traditions of the American West.

Groups of any size can be accommodated. No ticket limit!
